The purpose of the Business Services Committee is to recommend policy and provide input to the WDC and WorkSource staff in regard to the provision of services that address the workforce needs of the business customer. Members shall be responsible to:

1. Analyze and help to validate current labor market information.
2. Identify industry trends and overall employment opportunities.
3. Review the program operators' business services program design including the priorities and objectives.
4. Develop evaluation criteria to measure effectiveness of services for the business customer.
5. Provide oversight and input to the WDC's list of eligible training providers.
6. Review customer service feedback information from business customers.
7. Evaluate incumbent worker responses to WDC Request for Proposals and make funding recommendations to the WDC.
